EXTRAORDINARY.
Special Notice to the Ladies of Wichita and Neighboring Cities.

Miss C. A. Miles, the well-known milliner, telegraphically last week from New York city that she would return to-morrow to Wichita and that she had purchased the largest and most elegant stock of millinery goods ever displayed in the state; that they consisted of the very latest English, French and American fashions, many of them having been imported exclusively for her.

Miss Miles is the only milliner in the state that purchases all her goods in the New York, London and Paris markets of fashion. Others buy in St. Louis or Chicago, and consequently cannot secure the latest styles, designs, etc., which she can and does do. She most earnestly requests ladies to visit her store for the opening which will take place on next Saturday, March 20th, in her millinery parlors in the old stand of W. J. Wilson & Co., on North Market street. Indeed it will be foolish for them to purchase until they have attended her grand opening of the latest millinery goods. This to her many old patrons will be sufficient, and the ladies generally will do well to wait until next Saturday, as the display will be the most elaborate, as well as the largest and best in the city. Remember the old stand of W. J. Wilson & Co., March 20th, ss.

We are agents for the Victor bicycles and tricycles. Send for catalogue. Hyde & Humble Stationery Company.

We desire to return thanks to Messrs. Crawford, Bullock & Co., general insurance agents, for the prompt and satisfactory settlement of our recent loss and damage by fire on the 8th inst., and cheerfully recommend them to all having property to insure. S. C. HEYMAN & CO., 105-11.

Just received by Yount & Hopkins, a carload of Studebaker Bros. line buggies, automobiles, carrying 12 to 16 passengers, and Rain's old stand, 129 N. Market.

For a bargain in buggies, phonographs, cameras, etc., call on Yount & Hopkins, the sole agents for the celebrated Studebaker Bros. work, at Alexander & Rain's old stand, 129 N. Market.

Merit to Whom Merit is Due.
I have had many photos taken by photographers of repute in large eastern cities, and elsewhere, but photos taken recently by W. J. Rawlins, of Wichita, I regard the finest in every respect I have ever had.

A Big Sale.
The Kenworthy hat store has had an immense clearing sale, having sold twenty-five hundred dollars worth of hats in one day. Now that all odds and ends and hats out of style are closed out an elegant line of spring styles are coming in. $3.50 and cashmere plumes, Derby and soft hats; all in the latest styles. Give us a call. Old New York Store, north end.
